Subject: Disclosure Required by Section 559.805, Florida Statutes, Sale of Business Opportunities Act

Dear Sir or Madam:

AIN: BO2643      Issued: June 2, 2010      Expires: June 2, 2011

Enclosed is your advertisement identification number (AIN) which must be disclosed to anyone with whom you place advertising in Florida.

For your information, the Sale of Business Opportunities Act requires that you furnish a copy of the disclosure, AS FILED, to any prospective purchaser at least 3 working days prior to their signing a contract, or to your receiving any payment, whichever occurs first. The disclosure must include the disclosure statement, the financial statement, and the contract.

You are required to update your disclosure filing with the Department at the time any material change in the information furnished occurs. In any event your filing must be updated annually. Your financial statement must be less than thirteen months old.

Please understand that the Department has not reviewed or verified the information found in the disclosure and does not approve, recommend, endorse or sponsor any business opportunity.

Should you have any questions, please contact this office.

Sincerely,

Monica P Brown
